Argentina has eliminated export duties on certain mining industry products. The Decree (Decree No. 349/2016) was published in the Official Gazette on 15 February 2016 and is effective as of its date of publication.

The Decree establishes a 0% export duty for the goods listed under several codes of the Mercosur's common nomenclature (NCM) regarding certain mining industry products as follows: Chapter 25 (Salt, sulfur, earths and stone, plastering materials, lime and cement), Chapter 26 (Ores, slag and ash), and certain products under Chapter 27 (coal, not agglomerated; peat; bitumen and asphalts, natural; asphaltilites and asphaltic rocks).

In relation to this modification, Decree No. 160/2015 had already eliminated export duties applicable to most industrial exports, including the following items of the mining and steel industries:

- Raw and semi-finished gold (including platinum gold), and gold dust
- Raw and semi-finished silver (including platinum and golden silver), and silver dust

Decree No. 160/2015 was published in the Official Gazette on 21 December 2015 and was effective 7 January 2016.
