Organized by ACCA, EY Vietnam and National Economics University (NEU), "Pathway to Strategic Business Leader 2018" is an annual competition for third year students attending NEU. From 2011 until now, there have been over 1000 applicants, many of them received scholarships and have held great positions at ACCA and EY Vietnam.

This year's competition was organized with more emphasis on improving diplomacy & leadership skills. With this opportunity, students can uncover their leadership skills through various challenges, practical experience, and building valuable relationships with financial experts.

During the competition launching ceremony, the MoU Extension signing between ACCA, Ernst & Young Vietnam Limited and NEU also took place. Mr. Cuong Dinh Tran – Country Managing Partner of EY Vietnam, believes this will be a great strategic and cooperative move in creating a better working world.

More information on the competition will be updated regularly at: www.facebook.com/EYCareersVietnam/
