Moldova signs visa-free policy with India

Executive summary

On 10 May 2024, Moldova signed a visa waiver agreement with India, which will enable holders of Indian diplomatic and official passports to enter Moldova without a visa. The agreement will go into effect once it is ratified by both countries.

Key developments

The agreement was signed by Ana Taban, First Resident Ambassador of the Republic of Moldova to the Republic of India, and Pavan Kapoor, Secretary (West) of India's Ministry of External Affairs. The authorities are expected to issue further details in due course, including the maximum permitted period of stay for eligible Indian nationals under this agreement.

Impact

This agreement is expected to strengthen the bilateral relations between the two countries.
