» Executive summary

This alert highlights Securities and Exchange Board of India (“SEBI”) new framework aimed at accelerating and streamlining the Rights Issue process.

SEBI has rolled out a new framework to fast-track rights issues, targeting completion within 23 working days of board approval. This move aims to streamline fundraising, cut delays and costs, and boost market efficiency for listed companies.

These measures will apply to all rights issues by listed companies approved by their boards on or after April 7, 2025.

SEBI’s revamped rights issue framework boosts efficiency on account of two major changes:

- A shortened 23-day timeline for faster, cost-effective capital raising, and
- A greater allotment flexibility, allowing promoters to engage with selective investors—enhancing participation and fundraising potential.

» Key highlights of the revised framework

Selective Allotment in Under-Subscribed Issues

Unsubscribed shares can now be allotted to select investors at the same issue price.

Share Allotment via Automation

Allotment and bid validation to be fully automated by stock exchanges, depositories, and registrars within 6 months - by end of September 2025.

Promoter Rights Entitlement (RE) Transfer Flexibility

Promoters can renounce rights entitlements to specific investors with prior disclosure. Applications from such investors are non-withdrawable.

No SEBI Filing of DLoF

Draft Letter of Offer no longer needs SEBI review. Only the final Letter of Offer (LoF) is filed, with simplified disclosures. DLoF goes only to stock exchanges for in-principle approval.

Faster Fund Raise

With a 23-day timeline, companies can raise capital faster and at lower costs.

Merchant Banker Appointment Optional

No longer mandatory; can be appointed voluntarily for added efficiency.
