EY Tax Academy Flagship Series

Get ready for 2026 Form EA preparation

Zenith Hotel, Kuantan
14 January 2027

The better the questions. The better the answer.
The better the world works.

Shape the future with confidence

Get ready for 2026 Form EA preparation

The preparation of the Form EA represents an important employer responsibility under the self-assessment system.

Due to the extensive laws and public rulings that have been issued by the Malaysian tax authorities, as well as increased employer tax audits, the proper categorization and reporting of employee income have become increasingly challenging for employers.

Join us as we walk through the frequently asked questions and issues on the Form EA preparation, as well as share practical guidance on how to deal with the tax treatment and reporting requirements of various income and benefits provided to employees.

Who should attend?

Managers, executives and other stakeholders who are responsible for:

- Employer tax
- Payroll
- Human resources
- Global mobility
- International assignees

Session highlights

- A detailed review of Section 13(1) of the Income Tax Act (ITA) 1967.
- An overview of the relevant public rulings that affect the preparation of Form EA.
- Practical tips in dealing with the tax treatment of certain income and benefits provided to employees.
- Frequently asked questions on the Form EA preparation.
- Opportunities to raise questions or issues regarding the tax treatment of employee income and benefits.
