Strategic report

The directors present their strategic report for the period from 2 July 2022 to 30 June 2023 (the comparative period being from 3 July 2021 to 1 July 2022).

Principal activity and review of the business

The company's principal activity during the period was that of a holding company.

Dividend of £5,000k (2022: £6,500k) was received from subsidiary during the period. The company declared dividend of £5,000k (2022: £6,500k) to its shareholder during the period.

The company has no other key performance indicators.

Future developments

The results for the period are in line with expectations. The directors do not expect significant changes to the present nature of the business in the near future.

Principal risks and uncertainties

The principal risks facing the company relates to the timely settlement of balances with its subsidiary undertaking and the carrying value of its investments in subsidiaries. The directors review and agree policies for managing these risks as set out in note 9.

Section 172 statement

The company's parent is Ernst & Young LLP. Given the company's principal activity stated above, and the fact that the company has no commercial business, the general stakeholder and other considerations relevant to operating or commercial trading companies do not generally apply to any such decisions of the company's directors.

During the period, the company's directors acted in a way that they considered, in good faith, would be most likely to promote the success of the company for the benefit of its members as a whole and, in doing so, have had regard to the matters set out in section 172(1)(a)-(f) of the Companies Act 2006 when and if making decisions. In addition, the company's directors also had regard to other factors and matters that they consider relevant to any such decisions made. When and if required, the company's directors hold board meetings to make key decisions relating to the company, where such above matters and factors are considered, as relevant, such as when deciding to make dividend payments out of distributable profits during the period .

On behalf of the Board

Laurence G Buchanan

Director

Date: 26 January 2024

Directors' report

Statement of directors' responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the annual reports and the financial statements in accordance with applicable United Kingdom law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with UK adopted international accounting standards. Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether UK adopted international accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Notes to the financial statements

at 30 June 2023

1. Corporate information

Foviance Group Limited ('the company') is a private company limited by shares and incorporated, domiciled and registered in England and Wales (Registered number 04331949). The company's registered office address is 1 More London Place, London, SE1 2AF.

2. Accounting policies

The principal accounting policies are summarised below and have been applied consistently throughout the period and the preceding period, unless otherwise stated.

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with UK adopted international accounting standards ("IFRS").

The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting using a number of measurement bases, as set out in the accounting policies below. The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. The company is a holding company with no commitments. The directors have a reasonable expectation that the company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for at least twelve months from the date of approval of the financial statements and therefore they continue to prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis.

The company is exempt from audit for the current period as the parent has given a guarantee under s479A-479C of the Companies Act 2006.

The functional currency of the company is pounds sterling. The financial statements are presented in sterling and, unless otherwise indicated, are rounded to the nearest thousand pounds (£k).

The company is exempt from the obligation to prepare group accounts under section 400 of the Companies Act 2006 as it is a wholly owned subsidiary undertaking and its parent undertaking, Ernst & Young LLP, prepares group accounts (see note 11).

The financial statements have been drawn up for the period from 2 July 2022 to 30 June 2023 (the comparative period being from 3 July 2021 to 1 July 2022).

The company had no cash transactions during the period or the preceding financial period. No cash flow statement has therefore been prepared. Cash transactions are undertaken by the company's subsidiary, EY-Seren Limited, and cleared through the intercompany account (see note 8).

Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised when the company's right to receive dividends is established, which is when the dividend has been paid or a legally binding liability has been established for the payment of the dividend by the subsidiaries.

Income taxes

Current income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities, based on tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

Investments

Investments in subsidiaries are carried at cost less provision for impairment.

Notes to the financial statements

at 30 June 2023

2. Accounting policies (continued)

Financial instruments

Financial instruments are recognised when the company becomes party to the contracts that give rise to them and they are derecognised on settlement. They are measured initially at fair value, normally being the transaction price. The subsequent accounting treatment depends on the classification of an instrument as set out below.

Loans receivable

Loans receivable are carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method if the time value of money is significant.

New and amended accounting standards and interpretations and other changes to the financial statements

Several amendments and interpretations apply for the first time in the current period, but do not have an impact on the financial statements of the company.

Standards that are not yet effective

A number of standards and other pronouncements are in issue that are not yet effective and have not been adopted, none of which are expected to have a material impact on the company.

3. Directors' remuneration

The directors of Foviance Group Limited received no remuneration for their services as directors or their services in connection with the management of the company or its subsidiaries.

4. Tax

There is no income tax payable by the company since the entity's only income is dividend income from a subsidiary, which is not subject to corporation tax. The company has no deferred tax.

5. Investments in subsidiary

	30 June 2023 £k	1 July 2022 £k
Subsidiary undertakings held at cost
Opening	2,116	2,116
Closing	2,116	2,116

Details of the subsidiary undertaking is as follows:

Subsidiary undertaking	Holding	Proportion of voting rights and shares	Nature of business
EY-Seren Limited	Ordinary and preference shares	100%	Digital interface consultancy

Notes to the financial statements

5. Investments in subsidiary (continued)

The investment in EY-Seren Limited includes the "A" preference shares and the "B" ordinary shares. The full subscription price of the "A" preference shares is repayable in priority and repayment can be requested at any time by the holders of the preference shares, subject to this being permissible under the Companies Act. Apart from and subject to this priority the preference shareholders rank pari passu with the "B" ordinary shares. Each share carries one vote and has the right to receive dividends. The "B" ordinary shares carry one vote each and has the right to receive dividends pari passu with the "A" preference shares.

EY-Seren Limited is incorporated and operates in the United Kingdom and is registered at 1 More London Place, London, SE1 2AF.

6. Non interest-bearing loan receivable

	30 June 2023 £k	1 July 2022 £k
Non interest-bearing loan from subsidiary undertaking	669	669

The loan to EY-Seren Limited relates to a £669k unsecured, non-interest bearing loan. The carrying value of the loan approximates its fair value.

7. Share capital

	30 June 2023 No.	30 June 2023 £k	1 July 2022 No.	1 July 2022 £k
Authorised, Issued and fully paid

	2,973,226	2,582	2,973,226	2,582

A, B, D, E and F shares have one vote per share and have the right to receive dividends. Each share has equal rights on a sale or winding up. G deferred shares are non-voting shares and have no right to participate in any income distribution of the company. On a sale or winding up, the G shareholders are only entitled to a distribution after all other shares have been paid £1 million per share.

The company's objective when managing capital is to safeguard its ability to continue as a going concern. Capital is monitored by the directors to ensure this objective is met. No long term financing is required by the company.

Notes to the financial statements

at 30 June 2023

8. Non-cash transactions

There were no cash transactions during the period.

During the period, Foviance group limited received a dividend of £5,000k from EY-Seren Limited. This in turn paid to parent Ernst & Young LLP via three way netting arrangement.

9. Financial instruments

Financial instruments give rise to liquidity risk. The directors are responsible for setting objectives and maintaining policies to manage these risks. Financial instruments are not used for speculative activity and complex financial instruments are avoided. Information about how these risks are managed is set out below:

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk arises from the company's transactions with entities within the group. The company's objective is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility through the balance with its parent undertaking.

Credit risk

The company's only balance due is from its subsidiary, EY-Seren Limited. Loan receivable balances are monitored on an ongoing basis and as a result exposure to bad debts is not significant.

10. Related parties

The key management personnel comprise the directors of the company and the designated members of Ernst & Young LLP, its parent undertaking. The key management personnel receive no compensation for services to the company.

The following table provides the total amount of transactions entered into with related parties during the period, and balances as at the period end:

	Dividend from/(to) related parties £k	Non-interest bearing loan receivable £k
