Government price reporting and
Medicaid rebate processing

August 2025

Shape the future
with confidence

The better the question. The better the answer. The better the world works.

One strategic business advisor, two distinctive service offerings

Ernst & Young LLP (EY), offers drug manufacturers a blend of technical experience, hands-on support and robust automation tools to help satisfy your complex government pricing and Medicaid rebate requirements.

01 Government price reporting

Manufacturers are obligated to participate in government programs that require complex price calculations. Through the combination of technical know-how and leading-edge technology, our Government Pricing Module (GPM) provides our clients with a reliable, consistent and transparent means to help meet government price reporting obligations and mitigate compliance risk.

02 Medicaid rebate processing

Manufacturers who enter into Medicaid agreements are required to pay rebates to states. Our Medicaid Rebate Module transforms a historically manual process by utilizing innovative technology to provide analytical tools, visuals and tracking methods to expedite and simplify the quarterly Medicaid state rebate process.

Technology

- Secured multiuser environment with unique dedicated services
- No client hardware or software maintenance
- Implementation time typically 25%-50% shorter than competitors

Quality

- Secured multiuser environment with data loaded and calculations run within 8-12 days
- Enhanced data validations and analytical tracking tools available
- Mitigate compliance risk

Support

- Resources with deep industry and regulatory knowledge
- Decrease data transfer obstacles and increase analysis time
