Entity compliance and governance services

Flexibly designed and delivered with your needs in mind

In today's complex business environment, maintaining local legal and regulatory entity compliance is paramount. Organizations that fail to do so can face significant consequences, including legal penalties, director liability, delayed transactions and reputational harm. Moreover, the increasing demand for enterprise efficiency requires the rapid sharing of accurate and up-to-date legal entity data.

Ernst & Young LLP (EY) provides corporate secretarial services that simplify global entity management and help achieve operational excellence. We help manage annual and routine corporate secretarial obligations, build resilient governance frameworks, and provide transparency into your compliance activities on a global basis.

We work side by side with your team to deliver efficient entity governance. Our suite of tools supplements your existing entity management environment to streamline workflows, improve data accuracy and provide valuable insights – making governance a driver of operational efficiency and risk reduction. This approach builds stakeholder trust and increases responsiveness to the needs of the business.

Your advantage with our approach

Our entity compliance and governance services support your annual compliance obligations and ad hoc requests, along with any evolving requirements. Additionally, EY supports transactions, entity rationalization, restructurings and more.

Our entity management offering distinguishes itself with:

- Tailored approach: Our service capabilities encompass various aspects of entity management, from assessments and risk evaluations to ongoing annual and routine subsidiary compliance, data management and related administrative activities. We integrate with your governance processes, limiting disruptions, improving efficiency, and allowing you to focus on your core business objectives.
- Global footprint: With EY teams across 130 jurisdictions, our coverage means you're relying on EY in-country professionals who are working within a common methodology and systems, and all with accountability to you. This alignment accelerates communication, reinforces standardization and provides outcome predictability.
- Cost certainty: Through a simplified fixed-fee structure, we provide yearly cost certainty and the option for a single billing, eliminating the burdensome administration associated with managing a broad network of local providers.
- Governance simplified: Our US-led central coordination team of experienced entity management professionals serve as a single point of contact to manage the global process, streamline communication and aid in quick issue resolution.
- Continuous improvement: A basic tenet of our service is to focus on constant improvement in our processes and delivery. We align the performance of our teams and our client relationships to incentive innovation and operational effectiveness.

Proactive and dependable service delivery

Our commitment to providing comprehensive and effective entity compliance and governance services helps you to operate confidently in a complex regulatory landscape. Our service delivery provides you with the high quality and reliability you expect from EY teams. Specific highlights include:

- Timely and efficient transition: We prioritize a seamless transition process that reduces disruption to your operations. By leveraging leading practices and proven methodologies, we facilitate a smooth handover of responsibilities, allowing you to focus on your core business activities without worrying about compliance gaps.
- Simplified processes: Our service approach is rooted in the principles of simplification and integration through the smart use of technology. We harmonize processes across different jurisdictions, thereby reducing service delivery complexity and enhancing consistency. Our tools supplement your existing entity management system and serve as a basis for automation, alerts and self-service, along with supporting the future development of additional approaches to operational efficiency.
- Centralized global coordination: Our US-led team plays a pivotal role in orchestrating your global entity compliance needs. This centralized approach maintains global oversight while allowing flexibility at a local and regional level to meet the demands of the business. This structure enhances communication, reduces redundancies and fosters a unified compliance culture.
- Experienced legal professionals: A significant number of professionals from our entity compliance team are experienced lawyers who possess a deep understanding of the legal landscape and compliance frameworks. Their experience allows us to navigate complex regulatory environments, communicate more effectively with your organization, and help identify potential risk.
