Official Letter No. 1474/CACK-TSN regarding immigration pre-arrival information declaration requirement at Tan Son Nhat International Airport

Pursuant to the Official Letter No. 1474/CACK-TSN<sup>1</sup> issued by the Tan Son Nhat International Airport border gate police from the Immigration Department under the Ministry of Public Security on 8 April 2026 and effective on 15 April 2026, all overseas Vietnamese entering Vietnam under a visa and foreign nationals are required to complete a pre-arrival personal information declaration prior to entry at Tan Son Nhat International Airport.

Upon successful submission, a QR code will be generated. Passengers must present this QR code to immigration officers at Tan Son Nhat International Airport as part of the entry clearance procedures.

The pre-arrival declaration may be completed online via the following link <https://prearrival.immigration.gov.vn/>, or by scanning the relevant QR code provided.

This requirement has been implemented to enhance the efficiency of immigration control processes and to facilitate a faster, more seamless entry experience for passengers traveling to Vietnam.
